Many of our readers have expressed to me interest in Mr. Allen and in Mr. Allen's articles. He has added much to the GCW. Would it be too much for me to ask YOU to write him your reactions to his articles, so that he, in turn, can continue with the consciousness that YOU are really interested. Write him a card or a letter to General Henry, Jackson, Miss.

The iron hand of the government, now about to engage in a mortal struggle, should be laid heavily upon the striking workers in defense industries. It is idle to train soldiers if striking workers thwart their efforts.

You hear nothing of strikes in England. There a man is put in the army if he does not wish to work in essential industry.

I remember the last war. I was a high ranking non-com. and I was in the army 15 months before I had any arms at all. When boarding ship in New York, I was given a pistol that I did not know how to operate. Our outfit was in service 18 months when the armistice was signed. We never had a cannon until after the armistice, not a horse.

I feel that I possessed average intelligence. Certainly I was intelligent enough to help many of the commissioned officers draw maps and work problems. Yet I, so far as knowledge of war was concerned, was as helpless as a man with a sling shot fighting an elephant.

In the last war, our outfit (and I presume most outfits) was handicapped for material, for clothing, bedding, rolling equipment and almost everything else.

When November 11, 1918 came, we had received 18 months of training (??), yet we knew practically nothing. What of the poor fellow who was wearing a Panama suit and a straw hat and walking about the streets of Grenada on September 1, 1918, and was shot down on the front in October? What chance had he?

All of the about is being written with the hope that our people should insist that, if their boys are expected to fight, the iron hand of the federal government should be used to see that they have something TO FIGHT WITH.

Already there has been too much pampering of organized labor. Why should my boy be expected to fight for a dollar a day, while another man, exempted from military duty on account of being in essential industry, is permitted to strike for wages ten times as great as my boy receives?

Whether we want to see it or not, we are in war, having been maneuvered into the position that we are tied hand and foot with Britain. The federal government should give strikers the choice of two tools: the machine tool or the rifle; regular livable wages, or a dollar a day.

It seems so foolish that, at a time of national emergency, the tail should wag the dog, as the unions are wagging the federal government.

With all its vast resources of men, raw materials, factories and inventive and construction skill, America can help win the war; but, if our national effort is handicapped by greedy strikers, we may, through their sabotage, become a vassal state.

The above observations may be dismissed with a yawn and a "oh, hell, he does not know what he is talking about", but those observations come from experience, the best of all teachers.

Grandmaw and Grandpaw Gene Pyron are mighty proud of their new granddaughter.

"Miss" Rosa Thomason is just as proud of her youngest great granddaughter as she was of the first one.

Oh, yes, lest I forget, Mrs. Little Thelma Rose spent the day Tuesday with her mother in Coldwater.

Mrs. J. K. Arent spent the past week-end with her mother in New Orleans.

Sorry that our good neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, are leaving South Street.

Going to Memphis Tuesday, we passed the huge Sears truck destined for the area in and around Sardis and Como. Sears, we understand, makes frequent FREE deliveries of purchases amounting to $5.00 or more in that area. It is not much further on down to Grenada, and, unless our local merchants advertise their wares more extensively, they can expect to see this huge truck delivering packages to the door steps of the homes of Grenada.

Miss Blanche Winter, Native of Grenada, Dead

Miss Blanche Winter, 85, a native of this city died quietly while she slept in her home at Saratoga, California Tuesday night, February 18, 1941.

She was born in Grenada in 1856 and was the youngest child of the late Mr. and Mrs. William H. Winter, pioneer settlers in this state and community. Of a large family consisting of Mr. W. D. Winter, of Grenada county, Mr. Richard H. Winter, of Grenada, Mrs. M. E. Nicholson, of Grenada, Mrs. Kate W. Lyon, of Nashville, and Mrs. T. Boone, of Grenada, she was the last to pass away. Preceding her in death were also a half sister, Mrs. Anna E. H. Statham, wife of Colonel W. S. Statham of the C. S. A. and a half brother, Lt. Col. Samuel N. Elliott, C. S. A.

"Miss Blanche," as she was known to all of the older people of Grenada was a devoted member of the Presbyterian Church for a lifetime. Her time, her energy and her means were always used in the advancement of her church. For many years, she taught in the Grenada schools and the ideals she created in the hearts and minds of the then young children now live in the hearts and minds of many middle-aged people here. Later she taught in a female college in Greenville. Later she made her home with Mrs. Fannie W. Johnson, a cousin, in Vicksburg. After the death of Mrs. Johnson in 1935, Miss Blanche moved to California to spend her later life with two of her nieces, Mrs. Eli A. Keith and Mrs. Anna N. Neiswanger, both of whom were daughters of Mrs. M. E. Nicholson. She usually spent the summer months in Monticello, Tennessee, and invariably came by Grenada to visit her friends and kinspeople here. Just a few months ago she was here, and a slight deafness was the only sign of her advanced age.

In addition to the nieces heretofore mentioned, she is survived by the following nieces and nephews: Mrs. Fanny Winter, of Jackson; Mrs. Elvir W. Gilmore, of Oak Park, Illinois; Miss Adelaide Lyon, of Nashville; Mr. Jas. A. Lyon, of Nashville; Mr. W. W. Nicholson, of Elliott and Hon. W. A. Winter, of Grenada County.

Burial was had in Saratoga, California, Thursday last.

Volunteer System Puts On "The March of Values"

The Volunteer System of retail grocery stores embracing scores of stores in North Mississippi is putting on a widely advertised sale which it calls "The March of Values" beginning February 28th and ending March 8. Every boxholder in Grenada county, and every boxholder in the vicinity of each of the many Volunteer stores will receive through the mail a copy of the large circular advertising this sale event.

The GCW believes it and the Volunteer System established a record for Grenada producing 25,000 page circulars, printed on both sides, and folded, 12,000 of these circulars will be distributed from about 40 of these stores by hand, while an equal number will be delivered through the mails.

Nobody but those familiar with our equipment and with our limited space can appreciate the largeness of this order. At least 600 lbs. of paper were consumed. 25,000 pieces were given two folds by hand. Hundreds of packages were tied out.

We are just too darned lazy to want a job like that every week.

MARDI GRAS BALL AGAIN HELD IN GRENADA FRIDAY NIGHT

The ninth annual Mardi Gras Ball and Pageant, including the children's parts (which was held at the Community House in the afternoon) was held at the gymnasium of the Grenada High School last Friday night, and was acclaimed, both as to the number of participants and spectators and the gorgeousness of the pageantry, as one of the most colorful and successful events in the nine-years' period.

Mrs. C. C. Cathey was Chairman of the Ball; Mrs. E. L. Wilkins was Chairman of the selection of the new queen; Mrs. Rose Weir was Chairman of decorations; Mrs. C. S. Liles was Chairman of the Children's Party at the Community House; Mrs. C. H. Burkley was Chairman of Music; and Mrs. E. R. Burkley, active vice-president of the Episcopal Auxiliary, sponsor of the event, was in general charge of all activities and co-chairman of all committees.

Music was furnished by The Cadets from Mississippi State College for the pageant, for the floor show and for the dance which followed the crowning of the new king and queen.

Briefly the event included the eating in state of the "old" king and queen, Mr. Andrew Carothers and Miss Billy Guy Thomas; the floor show which consisted of four dancing groups the waltzers, the Virginia Reel, the Charleston and the Jitterbug; the selection of the new queen and the announcement of the new king and their subsequent crowning; and, finally, the ball which several hundred couples participated in.

A group of Boy Scouts, each of whom bore a United States flag marched out, and formed two parallel lines leading from the rear of the building to the throne. With Eaststaffs crossed they formed an arch under which King Andrew and Queen Billy Guy, whose elaborate train was supported by Misses Donna Jean Sharp and Bebe Gwin, marched to take their places on the improvised throne. The Scouts then ranged themselves left and right about the throne.

From their throne, the king and queen, as well as hundreds of spectators who filled to capacity the seats in the gymnasium, viewed the four-part floor show. Exemplification of the waltz was given by the following couples: Mrs. R. B. Townes and R. B. Townes, her son; Mrs. William Ames and Mr. Harry Greenfield; Miss Adele Hoffa and her brother, Mr. W. B. Hoffa, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Underwood, and Miss Robbie Doak with Mr. H. J. Ray, Sr. The Virginia Reel, the second part of the floor show, was rendered by the following couples: Dr. and Mrs. P. S. Hill; Mrs. Ed Bass and Mr. Frank York; Mrs. H. L. Honeycutt and Mr. Hurd Horton; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nichols; Mrs. Ernest Penn and Mr. H. D. Lane; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Alexander; Mrs. Ben Brown and Mr. T. H.

Meek; Mrs. H. D. Lane and Mr. O. W. Scott, and Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Clanton. Group Three, the expositors of the Charleston consisted of the following couples: Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Garner, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers Burt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lickfold, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. C. V. McKell; Mrs. Clayton Carpenter and Mr. Grady Green; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kibbey and Mrs. P. T. Lagrone with Mr. C. S. Burt.

The Jitterbugs, who constituted Group Four, included: Miss Grace Smith and Mr. Duval Proudt; Miss Betty Rule and Mr. Virgil Barnes; Miss Jackie Lane and Mr. Paul Lockett; Miss Lillian York and Mr. Ernest Penn, Jr.; Miss Betty Saunders and Mr. "Chick" Lockett; Miss Gene Gesslin and Mr. Mickey Angervine; Miss Mary Elizabeth Horton and Mr. John Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gesslin.

Following the conclusion of the floor show, each number of which elicited unanimous applause, Mr. Roy Doak announced the names of the new king and the new queen: King John P. Pressgrove who had been selected by the members of the Auxiliary and Queen Betty Rule who had been selected by balloting of those who purchased tickets to the affair. Again the Boy Scouts with their flags formed an arch through which each of the dozen unsuccessful candidates for queen, each with her escort, marched to the throne and ladies to one side and gentlemen to the other, they ranged themselves in an arc about the throne. Following this group came the pillow bearers, Misses Dorothy Liles and Arleen Pierce, who, in turn, were followed by King John and Queen Betty.

Reaching the throne, the new king and the new queen knelt upon the pillows and were crowned by the retiring King, Mr. Andrew Carothers. Then followed the grand march participated in by the groups mentioned above. Bobby Burkley, Earl Bailey, Busty Patty and Chalmers Richardson rolled and re-rolled the carpet upon which the royalty marched to and from the throne.

Dancing in the gaily festooned hall followed. Confetti and toy balloons and paper streamers were freely distributed. With a thirty-minute intermission at midnight, the dancing was enjoyed until about 2 a. m.

The Children's Party, held in the Community House under the supervision of Mrs. C. S. Liles was brief but none the less colorful and enjoyable. A new king, King Blanton Duncan supplanted the former king, King Bobby Townes, Jr. A new queen, Queen Bebe Cullens, supplanted the former queen, Queen Ruth Talbert. A floor show of exceptional merit was put on by the classes of Mrs. Leon Gesslin and Mrs. J. C. Hathorn. Following the floor show, the younger group enjoyed dancing.

The King (and Queen) are dead!! Long live the King (and Queen)!!

MACDOWELL TO PRESENT MUSICAL MARCH 6 AT BARWIN HOTEL

Each year since its organization, the MacDowell Musicians has endeavored to have one program in the year to which the public has been invited. The program has varied from sacred to secular music from artists of national reputation to the talent within the club.

Several years ago the club presented a program of Old Fashioned Music. Because of the sentimental appeal of the old music and the beauty of the costumes of the period, the club was requested to present such a program again this year.

So, on March 6, 1941 at 8:00 o'clock p. m. in the Barwin Hotel auditorium, the MacDowell Musicians will present a program of Old Fashioned Music.

The setting will be an old Southern garden with its magnolias, its rose arched picket fence, and its graceful moss-hung trees. The members of the club and the four gentlemen who make up the male quartette will wear the lovely graceful costumes of the ante-bellum period. The music to be presented is loved by young and old alike for the tender memories and associations which have been connected with each number. In addition to the male quartette there will be choruses with violin obbligato, piano numbers, vocal numbers, violin numbers and a ballet number, all sweet familiar music.

There will be an advance sale of tickets beginning Wednesday, February 26. Admission prices will be 5c and 25c. Tickets will also be on sale at the door on the night of the program.

The public is most cordially invited.

The boss of the Lockett clan, Miss Elise, came up from Jackson to view the Mardi Gras pageant.

Brother Liles' head shone just as glowingly as mine did at the Mardi Gras ball.

That day of days, "Down South" be Saturday. Since nearly every day is on the commodity list, however, the DAY has lost some of its importance.

To settle an argument, we are asking Rollie Jones to write us his exact age. Some of these poker players are trying to make out Rollie as older than I KNOW he is.

Harry Burkle has been laid up with a bad knee. McCreight Talbert has two of them, but manages to hobble about and look after the streets.

Our friend, Mr. Herbert B. Allen, frequent and welcome contributor to these columns, this week will wed an Arkansas girl. He has traveled the States and found his dream in Arkansas. We sincerely wish him and his bride much happiness. His wife was, until her resignation became effective this week, a Registered Nurse in the Army Nurse Corps at Camp Shelby, and this, perhaps, explains his poem contained in this issue.

Nearly all his friends up here agree with us that Mike Coner had better stick to that fine job he now has—a job he is ideally fitted for—rather than be persuaded to enter politics again. Mississippi needs Mike Coner, but Mississippi may not KNOW that it needs him.

Admiral Nimitz Commissions Navy Service School Built by Henry Ford

Auto Manufacturer Makes One of His Rare Appearances Before Microphone

DEARBORN, MICH.—When its huge building program got under way, the Navy faced another huge problem, the training of men in the highly technical duties which crews are called upon to perform.

The existing naval training stations were already full. Turning to industry, Navy officials found that the Henry Ford Trade School, situated in the heart of the Rouge plant, was perfectly suited to such training.

Henry Ford not only offered the facilities of both school and plant to the Navy for this purpose, but also said he would build barracks for 1200 students, mess hall for 2000, administration building, provision storage, recreation room, athletic field, a steam generating plant.

The offer was accepted, and on December 6, 1940, the first shovel of earth was turned on the bank of the Rouge River. Forty days later the first contingent took up quarters in the newly erected buildings. The inauguration ceremonies were described by Commander C. P. Cecil as "unique in the history of the United States Navy—for we are dedicating the first Navy Service School ever to be operated in connection with civilian industry."

With naval officers on the outdoor platform beside him, and 200 enlisted men drawn up in front of the school's administration building, Henry Ford said that: "During the present crisis our organization wants to do everything possible to help America and the President. The Navy being our first line of defense, I feel that the training of these young men will vitally benefit our nation. And, when this crisis is over, we can then reclaim these mechanically trained young men in our industries."

In turning the facilities of school and plant over to the Navy for training personnel, Edsel Ford explained that his father had established the Henry Ford Trade School 24 years ago "because he believed in using the facilities of the Ford Motor Company for something more than the building of motor vehicles. He believed that these facilities could also be used for the building of youth."

Rear Admiral C. W. Nimitz, who came from Washington to represent Secretary Knox, accepted the facilities of school and plant. "I can think of no better place for this extension of the Navy training program," he declared. "I wish, Mr. Ford, to express to you the appreciation of the Navy Department for this fine demonstration of patriotism on your part."

The new Navy Service School will be under the administration of Rear Admiral John Downes, Commandant of the Ninth Naval District, which includes 13 states and has headquarters at Great Lakes, Illinois. After explaining that the men to be trained here come from both the Pacific and the Atlantic, as well as the Great Lakes, he added: "We know that Mr. Ford has here established the finest school in the world for training men in the mechanical trades. This will be the most important training center that the Navy has for schooling its newly enlisted men in the mechanical duties which they will be called upon to perform immediately upon joining the fleet."

STATE CHAMPIONS

GRENADA DEBATING TEAM

GRENADA HIGH DEBATERS WIN STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

In the final round of the annual high school debating contest held at Jackson the Grenada High team, consisting of John Keeton, Anne Odum, Thomas Bell, and Billy Townsend, defeated the Bay St. Louis High School team and thereby won the state high school debating championship. The question debated was Resolved: That the Powers of the Federal Government Should Be Increased. John Keeton and Anne Odum argued the affirmative and Thomas Bell and Billy Townsend, the negative side of the question.

Six teams, winners of first and second places in district contests held earlier, entered the meet. In the first round of debates Grenada defeated Philadelphia, from the Central District, and Gulfport, from the Southern District, while Bay St. Louis defeated Hickory, from the Central and Okolona from the Northern District. In the final contest Grenada teams met and defeated both Bay St. Louis teams. The last debate was broadcast over WSLI.

Grenada High is justly proud of these debaters and the outstanding record they made.

Miss Estelle Turner and Billy Semmes accompanied the debaters to Jackson.

Brookhaven, Miss., Feb. 24, 1941. Supt. John Rundle, Grenada, Mississippi. Dear Mr. Rundle:

In behalf of the Executive Committee of the Mississippi Literary and Athletic Association, I extend to your Debating Team, the Coach, and yourself, our hearty congratulations for having won the State Championship in Debating. I have had a report from Superintendent Smith who had charge of this Tournament, advising that your students reflected honor upon themselves, their school, and our Association, for the manner in which they debated. May I express our thanks to you and your students for the fine spirit which they have manifested and for the excellent work which they have done.

There is a Loving Cup to be presented to your students for having won this Championship. Heretofore, it has been presented at the State Field and Track Meet. However, if you desire, Mr. Kenna, the Secretary, will send it to you. May I suggest that you prevail upon him to bring it to your school and present it in person.

May I again say that our Association is proud of the boys and girls such as have represented you so well in this contest.

With kindest personal regards to you, your students, and last, but not least, their teacher, I am,

Very cordially yours,

Edgar S. Bowlin.

He held that line, with the group of which he was recognized leader, until the sanity of the members returned.

Gore Springs H. D. Club Holds Meeting

The Gore Springs Home Demonstration Club held its regular monthly meeting February 18th with 21 members and five visitors present. The meeting was called to order by singing "Home Sweet Home." After the roll call and business part of the meeting, Mrs. Sam Gillon gave a reading entitled "Like Eating Green Apples." Mrs. Jordan, one of our visitors from Elliott Club made a short talk about their club work.

Each member made out his year-book for the following club year. After which Mrs. Guy James gave a demonstration on kitchen planning and arrangement for convenience. Two new members, Mrs. Tafford Worsham and Mrs. Sykes were added to the roll. The meeting adjourned to meet again March 15th.

The board met Monday, but do not want to get out too early.

John Presser attended some kind of defense meeting in Jackson Thursday.

Dr. J. S. Sharp is medical examiner. John Presser, Sam Mims, W. B. To Bring New Hollywood Picture To Grenada

"MELODY COMES TO TOWN" will be Big Attraction in Farmer Day Program
FRIDAY, MARCH 7th--10 A. M.

Free to farmers, in this and neighboring communities, is the big John Deere Day Movie Program to be held March 7 at Grenada Theatre at 10 o'clock a. m.

According to Robert Hardware Co. local John Deere dealers, this year's John Deere Day Movie Program will appeal to everyone who has anything to do with farming. Mr. Roberts extends a cordial invitation to every farmer, farmer's wife, and farm boy to come to this big day of entertainment and education.

The main attraction, "Melody Comes to Town," is a sparkling, all-talking picture with a popular Hollywood cast. It's an appealing story of a rural community rallying to the support of a worth-while cause. Packed with sentiment, laughs, and thrilling music, this heart-warming picture will long be remembered by those who see it.

The capable cast includes lovely Jean Parker, who plays the part of Melody, and her troupe of charming girl musicians... Jackie Morgan... Edward McWade... Sarah Padden... Joe Brown, Jr... Natalie Moorhead... Frank Faylen... Charles Phipps... and stuttering Roscoe Ates.

In addition to "Melody Comes to Town," four other new, all-talking pictures will be shown. They include "The Road to Happiness"—an interesting story of John and Claire Biane, a typical small-farm couple who eliminated many long, hard hours of work and found a new happiness in farm life... "The Shepherds Take a Vacation"—and educational picture depicting the change in harvesting methods that's taking place on small and medium-sized farms throughout the country... "The Control of Quality"—an enlightening picture that takes you "behind the scenes" in the building of modern farm tractors... and a short news reel of "What's News in Farm Equipment for 1941."

According to Robert Hardware Co., admission to the John Deere Day Show will be by ticket only. Any farmer who has not received tickets can get them by inquiring at their store before the day of the show.

Jackson Mail Service

We recently had a little quib in our paper about the "damn poor mail service" in Jackson, citing two recent examples: first, we mail a Special Delivery letter addressed to a firm in Jackson which went down on No. 3, arriving in Jackson about 2:15, and which was delivered at 5 p. m.; and, second we mailed a post card and a large envelope destined to a firm in Jackson on Monday with the result that the postal card was delivered on Tuesday morning and the large envelope was delivered Wednesday morning. We are going to add a more recent example. Last Tuesday afternoon, we mailed a first-class letter containing a photograph to The Mississippi Engraving Company, hoping that the company would receive the letter Wednesday morning in time to make a cut and mail it back to us in time for us to use it Thursday morning. The cut did not arrive in Grenada until Friday, too late for the issue for which it was intended.

The Postmaster in Jackson has mailed to our postmaster a long form for us to fill, which we are not going to fill out, for we stated the facts in the quib, and re-state them in this editorial.

The irony in the situation is to be found in this agreement between us and the engraving company; that, when in a hurry, we will pay the Tri-State Transit Company 25 cents to transmit the order, instead of paying the post office department three cents.

We understand that our little quib was brought up before the Jackson Chamber of Commerce, not for denial but for affirming what we said.

It is high time that the mail delivery in our capital city, of which all Mississippians are proud, not proud, however, of the mail delivery service there, be improved.

Challenge To Grenada

(By Herbert B. Allen)

Last September I contributed my first article to the GCW. Since then I have traveled widely in this state and have had the pleasure and privilege of meeting many Mississippians in all walks of life. As the result of a brief visit in Grenada, the Editor has requested me to again contribute a weekly article on topics of general interest.

In order to make these articles living words, I invite you to write and suggest what you consider most interesting at the moment. We may deal with social questions, economic problems, national politics, foreign affairs, the second world war, or anything that affects the state or the nation in a broad way.

I shall write from the viewpoint of an advanced liberal. I am associated with no economic group and affiliated with no political party. My opinions are quite often unpopular, but they are realistic. Fiction and tradition have little place in the grim world of today. They serve to cloud the mind and confuse the judgment. In any event, the reasons a writer gives in support of his opinions are more important than his opinions.

Mississippi and the Southland have basked and slumbered in the pleasant sunshine far too long. The sleaz is at an end. On the day I arrived in Jackson, February 2nd I read this astonishing statement in the "Daily News": "There are more than 700,000 persons on the commodity relief rolls in this state." This is truly a scandalous and deplorable condition of affairs. In traveling over all of the globe I never encountered anything to match that record.

The up and coming younger generation, which is emerging from the fine schools which I am delighted to see all over the state must correct this situation. The old illusions which pass currently for truth in the South must be discarded, and a sadly delayed new order of things must be carefully planned and put into operation to correct present conditions.

Actualities must be faced, no matter how unpleasant; and what actuality is so unpleasant as the ugly fact of 700,000 Mississippians receiving commodity relief. One may close their eyes to such unpleasant conditions for years—but not permanently!

There are throughout Mississippi young men and women with a fervent love for this old Magnolia State. In their hearts and minds I know there is the wish and the will to elevate social and economic conditions considerably above the current levels. If the Bolsheviks, with all their handicaps, could formulate a plan for Russia, then it should be considerably easier for Mississippians to formulate and carry to success, a program for the advancement of their native state.

Do you believe that it is both patriotic and practical to inquire into the possibilities that are open to us as a free and intelligent people to pull ourselves up by our own bootstraps?

I am a Canadian by birth and education, an American by naturalization, and a Southerner by choice. I am here not by the accident of birth, but by the exercise of my own free will. It has occurred to me that an organization of those who definitely are anxious and willing to DO something to boost the state would be a starting point toward that goal. Some such title as "THE PROGRESSIVE MISSISSIPPI ASSOCIATION" would express the broad aims of the membership.

Is there a better place in which to launch the idea than Grenada? Do you believe that here in Mississippi there are patriotic spirits that possess the intelligence and ability to plan, and carry into practice ideas that would very materially improve general economic conditions in Mississippi by January 1st 1946? The world has had amazing examples of what planning has accomplished in recent years. Imagine what could be achieved if real effort were put into constructive planning!

Will you please write and let me have your thoughts on the suggestion I have outlined, and what you think could be accomplished. Let us, as civilians, do something worth while during the years that the boys will be doing their share for us!

An Important Business

While the business is operated for profit for the owners, as all successful ventures are, the North Mississippi Sales Company which operates the weekly livestock auction sale at the Fair Grounds in Grenada is a very important element in Grenada's growth as a distribution center.

It affords a ready market for cash for every meat and work animal that still has breath in its body—from the fine fat steer bringing top prices to the humble goat who has no friend left on earth and the work-weary mule whose days of usefulness are well nigh over.

The turn-over there each Thursday is tremendous. Having so many animals to sell, there is little horse-play that sometimes characterizes small auction sales, for one of the owners of the business starts the bidding at pretty close to the real value of the animal, and this insures the seller at least a reasonable price. But, even at that, if he is not satisfied with the knock-down price, he can call "no dice" and get his animal back.

In this county and in surrounding counties which have been forced through governmental reduction programs from cotton to stock raising, this institution is a wonderful aid.

Those who have never seen one of these Thursday sales should go out some Thursday afternoon and they will then appreciate the greatness of the business.

England and Italy

(By Herbert B. Allen)

Early this month, a squadron of the British Mediterranean fleet was steaming eastward into Italian waters. The objective was the Italian "New York"—the heavily fortified port of Genoa. As the Italian Navy (so called) was nearby, and the area was presumed to be heavily mined, and the approaches to Genoa covered by heavy coast artillery units, an attack on Genoa may well be considered a daring enterprise.

On Saturday there appeared on the bulletin board of the British battle wagon MALAYA the following laconic notice: "There is a possibility that the ship may be in action tomorrow morning." This was no idle dream. Sunday morning in broad daylight the MALAYA and the RENOWN opened fire on Genoa with 15 inch guns.

In case you are not acquainted with the habits of 15 inch naval guns! If one were fired from Grenada at a target in Winona, every one in both towns would have a very graphic idea of what the San Francisco earthquake must have been like. And although I should not like to be around when it was fired in Grenada, I would certainly not like to be among the welcoming delegation in Winona! The kick of the mule would be considered as the soft hand of a nurse upon a fevered brow thereafter.

When I read some time ago that the Italian newspapers were celebrating the fact that Italian flyers had taken part in the bombing of London, I was curious as to what Italian city would feel the heavy hand of reprisal. Because Rome is a city sacred to so many millions of Christians, the British government is not likely to molest the ancient city which even St. Paul had visited.

Now, I imagine that if the Genoa papers ever run any more headlines on how Italian flyers are aiding in the bombing of London, cold chills run down Genoese spines; and the same sensations will be felt at every other Italian seaport city. For their fleet is impotent to protect them. For a bomb, no matter how heavy, is limited in its area of destructiveness by the angle at which it falls; but a shell from a great battle wagon travels parallel with the ground, and its damage, like the Grand Canyon, must be seen to be appreciated! Tuesday afternoon the squadron returned to Gibraltar to replenish their depleted arsenals. (Italian papers please copy.)

Last November I wrote in the GCW that any naval or military action taking place from Gibraltar to Singapore would have little effect upon the war; but that the British would be uneasy if Australia were threatened. If the Japanese fleet moves on Australia the United States Fleet will surely move out of Pearl Harbor the instant that news is flashed to Hawaii. But the Japanese are very unlikely to do anything of the kind. Their treasury is flatter than a sunfish and they can tackle an unarmed Chinaman with impunity—but there is no heart in a yellow Jap to take on the gobs in Uncle Sam's fleet. And if Uncle Sam's fleet lay at anchor while the Japanese fleet moved on Australia and New Zealand, those sailors would never show their faces on the mainland again.

In a democracy there are a number of things that the citizens cannot be informed of, and naval and military plans are first among those secrets of state. But it can be taken for granted that there is a perfect understanding between the navies of Britain and the United States insofar as Japan is concerned. And no one is more sure of that than a Japanese Admiral. The United States Army will see no service abroad. But the American fleet is annoying our enemies now in just the same manner that Hitler was annoying the world before the war—no one knows what it will do, or when it will do it. You can't expect fellows to spend a life time at sea and never see any action. They would get so rusty they never would be any good if they were desperately needed.

Now the British victories in North Africa have been an excellent show; besides the Australians and New Zealanders must have been fed up on that Egyptian lutech. General Wavell, the commander down there has only one eye, so it took him a little longer to look over the situation. But he finally got around to it. This was too bad for Old Marshal Graziani who had been a big shot chasing naked Abyssinians armed with a loin cloth and a slight shot. The Aussies carried something a little heavier than that—it felt like the kick of a kangaroo. The Australians, like the Italians, are a fun-loving lot of fellows; only the Australians are having it, and the Italians aren't!

No one probably enjoyed the show so much as the French. France needed something just like that. There hasn't been anything to laugh at in France for some months up to now. That pot-bellied tramp, Mussolini, no longer bellows from a palace balcony, nor struts like a bald headed baboon waiting for an idea. What a true piece of Bologna that bird turned out to be. Il Duce—the pastel-colored Caesar!

The Italian nation has seen all of its clay pigeons shattered with a suddenness that has left them in a daze. First their vaunted navy; their glorified air force; their wretched army; their fossilized, bewhiskered old "Marshals"; their "vast colonial empire" as they called the desert wastes and the Abyssinian wilderness; now finally old Marshal Graziani—and the big stiff himself, Mussolini the Mess! What a fiasco to a comic opera caste; first shirts, then uniforms—now barriers!

Old Petain smiles over in Vichy, tosses off a cognac and stiffs with Hitler. Old General Weyand in Alziers, tosses off a cognac and doesn't smile at all—just oils up his old pistol. Two old soldiers of France—two old war dogs! Having Hitler more than the Italians fear the Royal Air Force. I see by the papers that poor old Spain sees the light too. France and Mussolini have identical views. I'll say they have to. A very enlightening view if seen from the wrong angle.

Italian prospects are now desperate indeed. Army, navy and air force, supplies, food and illusions gone with the desert wind. Pride rideth forth on horseback and cometh back on foot. For Italy the war was over a month ago. It only remained to be decently interred. The figures on the strength of their Army, Navy and Air Force were grossly inflated. So it is with the windbag on the Rhine. Next week we consider Hitler, the great twisted prizelet. I shall write on "England and Germany." The British lion is stretching and her cubs are

Once the Editor gets an IDEA into his head, even dynamite won't prevail against it. One of his pet ideas, or obsessions to be exact, is the utter sweetness of the Grenada nurses. To humor a fellow Veteran I am going to agree with him "in principle"—and as the verses are pointed in the general direction of the Hospital, and the truly charming young ladies there, have you noticed the rakish angle at which they wear those clever little contraptions known familiarly as "caps"? Well—the French have a word for it, CHIC! Bottoms up to the girls in white!

MORE SPEAKERS WANTED

At the time of this writing the Grenada Debating Team is preparing to depart for Jackson to compete in the state debating meet. This is a good team we have this year and has up to the time of this writing been undefeated.

Three of these debaters will not be here next year and thus some new speakers will be necessary, although several speakers of this year will probably enter.

Now is a good time for any who contemplate trying for the debating team next year to start. They can start taking public speaking and enter for declamation. This year they will be learning various parts of speech and developing poise, stage presence, etc. Possibly a new speaker might have the opportunity to give a speech this year.

This school has a wealth of potential speakers, and if all of these students would participate we feel that Grenada would be unsurpassed in debating and declamation.

We urge you, all who are the least bit interested in speaking or think that you could speak to go out for declamation. Not only will you be getting excellent training but you will be striving to help the school to win platform honors.

ROMANCE, BY PROXY

Through the car window she could see the moon like a golden laup in the star-sequined sky. A warm breeze brought the scent of blossoming lilacs with it. "My darling"—She leaned closer to catch each tender word. Her heart beat faster. Somewhere in the distance she could hear the fitting tune of an old love song. Now, it must be now. "My darling will you marry me?" Ah, at last, it was over. With a sigh she switched off the radio.

CENSUS

After an extremely wearying census, which sapped our time and energy everything was going nicely and we had compiled all these statistics:

WHAT I AM HAPPIEST DOING

Frances Herring—Playing the "Barber of Seville" with Jay Gore.

Mary Nell Rayburn—Going to the show with—well going to the show.

Dorothy Talbert—Reading.

Ruth Townes—Eating.

Jean Geslin—Cutting up.

Ruth Talbert—Getting out of Latin.

Then something happens! We can't say what. But just read for yourself the fate of the rest of our answers.

CHAPEL PROGRAM

On February 18, the Freshman Class were in charge of the chapel program. The program "Books To Grow On" gave very interesting short sketches from favorite books. Lewis Hester conducted the program—Teddy Revell and Laverne Wilson acted the parts of Bobby and Jean, the children who grew as they read the books. Catherine Herring was their mother, who read "Little Black Sambo" to the children, before they were old enough to read.

Ada Ruth Frazier, Aaron Penick, Tommy Horton, Leslie Goodwin, and Polly Parker enacted a short scene from "Robin Hood."

"Pocahontas" was very life-like with Indian war-whoops, war-paint, and bright blankets. Jean Scott Burt, Willard Hudson, Dave Dugan, Billy Thiesman, Earl Moss, and Warner Moss were the characters of this sketch.

Patty Stockard, Margaret Spain and Bobby Townes brought "Little Women" to life.

My Honeycomb and Kiri Aven portrayed Huck Finn and Tom Sawyer of the well-known classic "Tom Sawyer."

Ruth Lee Morrow, Mary Elizabeth Cowan, Grifelle Nall, Margaret Green, Dave Dugan, Giles Patty, Lillian Caloway, Ruby Bodisch, Mary Inez Hemphill and Stella Itry gave a very humorous scene from "My Sister Eliza."

Ada Ruth Frazier, Larry Noble and Ella Thomas played the parts of Scarlett, Rhett Butler and Aunt Pittypot from "Gone With the Wind."

As a proper close for the library program two new books which are now in our library were mentioned, "Mrs. Tupper" and "I Married Adventure."

Have you read them?

WASTE BASKET

Hello there!

Benton Keeton's mind has wandered to Oakland.

"Poor" Keeton should take a study course on "How to Make My Lunch More Charming!" (Statement heartily endorsed by geography teacher).

Mary Libba Horton's new bracelet is quite a "trinket." Maybe having them drafted isn't so bad after all.

Photography is taking the place of the weather, (ask Montee Dalgro).

Bernice Jones will testify to the fact that "men are deceivers ever," as will Nellie Joiner and Helenie Chapuis.

We've heard a lot about Bobby Weirs' "A. K. A." but after meeting her Sunday we think he's "got something there."

Verna Leggett and Leo are very adept at composing poetry.

Billy Guy Thomas and Catilla Smith came back home thinking Alabama a great state.

L. D. is still happy.

"Poor" Keeton.

She: "Do you smoke?"

He: "Nope."

She: "Do you drink?"

He: "Nope."

She: "Do you smooch?"

He: "Nope."

She: "What do you do?"

He: "I tell lies."

T. W. Goodwin started it all over when he sent Beale a box of candy for Valentine's Day. He followed it up by arying her to the show.

"Ej" Smith has a new campaign, but the objective is as yet a mystery.

Judge: "Why do you wish a divorce?"

She: "My husband spilled coffee on me."

Judge: "And you call that grounds for divorce?"

She: "Yes, coffee grounds."

Polly Richardson has gone NAZI, dating a Greenwood. "Hose name is, as we can best interpret, Mussolini Goering."

Jay Gore is taking up the time, whether with results or not.

Rogers Pleasants seemed to be in more of a frenzy all last week than usual. (Could Billie Saunders have caught to do with it?)

"Swoon! Swoon!" Larry Noble as Rhett Butler has completely stolen the feminine hearts—

SONG OF THE TARDY ONE
If you get to the "Hall" before I do,
Tell Miss Hammond I'm coming too.

Ruth Lee Morrow's beautiful rendition of "Chloe" in chapel Wednesday will long be remembered by all—(Gee, how could we forget?)

Answer to any question: "What's they get to do with the "Lake and wheat?"

So long, KATY

We would remind you, that in order to insure your getting a year's look you should see Miss Tupper or one of the editors of the Bulldog immediately.

Put your class lines!

ACTION, UNCLE SAM!

Old England through the centuries
Has mothered gallant hearts,
Who rounded the wilds over all the globe
And mapped them on our charts.

Immortal pens have written there
In ink of magic might,
Of consolation to mankind,
And inspiration bright.

These famous old battalions
That doated Napoleon's star,
Once more are on the firing line
From Rome to Zanzibar.

The Royal Navy still is manned
By British hearts of oak;
It's Liberty's great challenge
To the hated Nazi yoke.

The boys who fly the Hurricanes,
And push those bombers through,
Dislay the flashing colors
Of our own red, white and blue!

The slowness of our Uncle Sam
Is great news in Berlin,
But not the kind of action
To make Tommie Atkins grin.

Canadians and New Zealanders,
Brave Scots and Aussies too—
The soldiers of the Empire
Are looking now to you.

The least that you can really do
Is tighten up your belt;
Speed up that mass production
So your efforts will be felt!

—Herbert B. Allen.

STREAMLINING OF 114TH TOOK PLACE THIS MONTH

"Streamlining" of the regiment, which consisted of converting the three battalions into two, more compact units, was the principal regimental activity during that week.

Commanding the new battalions, each of which is composed of a headquarters battery, three batteries, an ammunition and service battery and the also newly organized, anti-tank batteries, are Lt. Col. Henry N. Eason, in command of the second, and Lt. Col. Albert Lake, commander of the first.

SPRING'S AHEAD SO LAKE ASSUMES CAMP SPOTLIGHT

Kingsley Lake, one of the most beautiful in Florida, and named by aviators as the "Silver Dollar" Lake because of its roundness, will become as popular as other Florida resorts with the approach of the Summer months.

The activity will be part of the camp's recreation program. It is also possible that officers' and enlisted men's families will be on the beach at Lake Kingsley throughout the Summer.

Sgt. Ming, Grantham, Gaston and Jackson with the help of Pys, Echols, Morgan, Bell and Tollison will instruct the selectees in fundamentals for two weeks before they are assigned to certain details.

Private Sam R. Spence has been detached to the M. P. company for eight weeks' training. It is highly likely that he will remain in this branch of service for he likes this type of work.

The 31st (Dixie Division) has insured itself to the tune of $300,000.00. The men of our battery have taken out roughly something over $200,000 worth of protection.

Ralph Davis wears a very gloomy look on his face here lately. Wonder why that the fiancé of Miss Davis is so stinky with her letters?

Sgt. Bart has completed a course in motor transport. We understand he made a very high grade on his final examination. Also, Sgt. Ming and Cpl. Kelly completed their course in signal communication and will soon start passing on their knowledge to the battery detail.

School is scheduled to come to its culmination, April 1st. These schools were designed to cover every phase of military action from cooking to intelligence work. Many of us can't get leave until after the schools are over.

DO YOU KNOW

Veteran preference in government employment has long been of special concern to the American Legion. Now all procedure, selection and voluntary will become eligible for veteran preference at the termination of their military training. This was the highlight of the discussion on veteran preference in the 57th annual report of the United States Civil Service Commission for the year 1939.

The battery's official society, Spencer Unit, is fast becoming the oldest in the outfit.

We will be three men short for a weekend days as Private Arthur Cannon and Carter have taken leaves to go home. The battery S. I. for the first week, Gallabow, made them promise to bring him a cake of Montgomery Day. I'd say it's the best myself but I guess I'd better not.

Congratulations are in order to Cpl. Hooker who made the highest grade of any enlisted man in this battery on the I. Q. test recently conducted according to the "Dragon," the official organ of the 114th. A. One hundred matching and fifty official questionnaires made up the test. Hooker got 224 out of the possible 150 right. His grade was one of the best in the regiment. A number of others in the battery were in "A" class having correctly answered 112 and over.

"Preacher" Litten as he was affectionately known as in GHS—now "chaplain" Litten evidently had his mind on his girl friend in Jackson file when he told the inspecting officer that the effective range of a .45 pistol was 30 yards.

There is an epidemic of homesickness among the men. Somewhere in the neighborhood of 15 have requested leaves. A good portion of the leaves is spent traveling the round-trip of 1000 miles—only seven days are given.

A good portion of Camp Blanding is completed. At one time there were over 21,000 workers employed in the mammoth construction job, that when

Sen. James C. Rice To Speak Wednesday, March 5

Due to unavoidable conditions I will have to hurry through this week and not to be too late for press, however, especially do I want to announce that the seakerp I mentioned last week, Senator James C. Rice, M. D. of Natchez, will speak to us in the Mayor's Office, Wednesday, night, March 5th at 7:30 p. m. By all means be sure to come if you are interested in cheaper rates at a profit to us and the City and if you are interested in a City-Owned System, please bring your friends that are also interested and tell everyone you think will be interested in this, but be sure not to forget the date, place and time.

Dr. Rice, as you probably know, has been crusading for a number of years for purposes and assistance to such problems as ours, which we know is a grave one. Dr. Rice is a very broad and interesting speaker and you will be glad that you heard him, he is far better informed of the ways and actions of the Power Companies in this State than I, and I am and feel that you are glad to have such capable person unfold to us many of the things that we would like to know about our light and power situation.

We wonder why our power has to be so high in price and why the Power Company takes that 2000 percent gross profit on each KWH, if bought from TVA and sold to us at 4-1-4c, they purchase and sell us; I believe some of the reasons are:

Rex J. Brown drew a fabulous salary of $17,740.08 in 1939 or $1,478.34 per month; H. B. Sargent, Vice-President, drew $9,731.10 and W. A. Moore, another Vice-President, drew $5,000.00. A total of $33,471.18 paid to the "Colony" and "Tie" men that are on the Broad-Walk of the Power Company, that does not include the "Colony and Tie" brigade that we have in our Local Power office, that are on the Broad-Walk pay rolls.

All of this is attached to someone's light bill and each of us are an individual of that "someone." Some of the advertisements that the Power Company has published in the Press shows a small written slogan at the bottom of the advertisement—"Whose taxes are more than a million dollars a year." I wonder what that "More than a Million" means, does it mean one and one half million or two million? anyway I have correct government figures before me of the exact amount of taxes they paid and those figures are quite less than one million dollars. And they advertise "More than a Million Dollars a year" can you believe it?

I wonder if the Power Company would like to see my figures to find out from what source I obtained them, I will be glad to show them to anyone the figures and tell them their origin, if they choose.

No wonder the power boys can be so congenial and accommodating, we are preache that however, but that save they have as "pull down ointment" don't stick on me and neither does it change my attitude toward being literally gutted every month on my power bill.

Be sure and come to the speaking in the Mayor's office on the 5th at 7:30 p. m. and hear Dr. Rice.

J. W. (Red) BRISCOE, February 26, 1941.

by Mrs. M. S. Walker

The week-end just closed was a real home-coming for most all, the college students. In fact we believe they were all here except Sophie Clark of Memphis and Wheeler Johnson out in Texas, but they were missed and we mention them first.

From the University of Mississippi came Lula Sledge, Claude Caffey and Everett Moore, Jr. to help spread joy.

From M. S. C. W. was Lola Mae and Mattie Bell Partridge, Onnie Mae Carver, Barbara and Nelson Klingland.

From Moorhead Junior College came Grace Norwood and from Delta State Teachers College, Marjorie Herman.

Miss State was represented by J. C. Sledge, Jr., Robert Raper, Jr., and Everett Wood—better known as "Peete."

Rev. Joe Caruthers, who is serving the Fairview Circuit of Methodist churches was at home for the week-end and seeing his many friends. Besides preaching he is doing some special work at Delta State Teachers College.

Miss Dorothy Anderson Wilkins, who holds a position at First National bank in Memphis, was at home for the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wilkins, Miss Mary Jean Wilkins, who is teaching in the southern part of the state, met her sister here also for the week-end.

Mrs. Cliff Tyler, of Ita Bena, visited her relatives here Sunday, the Norwood family and the George Holmes family. Mrs. Holmes returned with her to Ita Bena for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Gillespie, of Belhaven College and the Frank Gillespie family of Aberdeen, were here for the week-end visiting their father, Dr. G. Y. Gillespie, who is sick.

Mrs. William Holmes, who fell and broke her hip and was treated at the Winona Infirmary for a week or more is at home and improving.

Miss Dorothy Turner of Memphis, accompanied by her friend, Miss Katherine Stirling, was down from Memphis and visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Turner.

Making sunshine for the L. M. Woods family were the following children that gathered around their fire-side: Mr. and Mrs. Dock Cool, Greenwood; Mrs. Joe Tidball, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. School and little son, Sam, from Winona; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sydes, Koscusko; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Stewart and two children, Naney and Joe Ellis, of Oxford.

HOLCOMB NEWS ITEMS

Miss Bernice Campbell, of Greenwood, and Mr. Stevens Jullierat, of New York City, were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Campbell, of Holcomb last Sunday. Mr. Jullierat left Greenwood Monday morning at 6:30 for New York to take up his former job as aviator.

The 1940-41 "Holcomb Goldbugs" having won the annual invitational tournament at Grenada, competed with the schools of this district at Duck Hill Saturday in the quarterly final tournament. The girls met an easy game with Valley at twelve. However, the next game was unusually hard, being a battle with Casella at 4 o'clock. They defeated Casella for the second time this season, both times with 1 point. The last game they played was with the Spring Hill girls. This was the first time the "Goldbugs" had met Spring Hill, but won with a victory of eight points. That was the final game which put the "Goldbugs" first in the semi-final tournament at Durma, Miss. Tuesday afternoon, "Lookout State here comes the Goldbugs."

We are sorry, but can truthfully say our boys fell along the wayside in the first game with Casella. The boys lost with 13 points behind "Casella." "Sorry players."

Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Bailey and daughter, Betty Ann, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Powell Barnard, of Grenada, Friday evening, February 21.

Mr. Groce Carver had charge of the service at Sparta Church Sunday a "high" chair and eat dinner Saturday at the Rose Cafe.

Wonder if Coach Kounsaville's bones need repairing after shaking through the battle with Casella Saturday.

Grenada Hospital have your doors open and the stork ready for Holcomb during the months of March and April.

A certain girl out of the freshmen class misplaced a senior ring. Wonder where it is.

So Ann Campbell falls for blue eyes and blond hair.

Wonder why Mary Beatty goes to the post office so often since the draft began.

The image consists of two black and white photographs. The top photograph shows a man in a dark uniform standing next to a large, dark-colored truck. The truck has the word "MILITARY" visible on its side. The bottom photograph shows the same man sitting on the back of a smaller, light-colored truck. This truck has "GRANADA M.P. L.P.V." written on its side. The background in both photos appears to be an outdoor area with some structures.
